

CELEBRATION NOTE STARTERS

BECOME AN ALLELUIA

The Christian should be an alleluia from head to foot. (St. Augustine)

We were created to celebrate and delight in God's abundant goodness, expansive creativity, unfailing love, extraordinary beauty, and unparalleled faithfulness.

At its core, celebration is choosing hope, noticing the good even in brokenness, and being fully present.

Let's celebrate with one another, marking the little moments and the significant accomplishments, acknowledging the hard work done, sharing in each other's joy, or simply being thankful for the presence of someone in our lives.

CELEBRATION IN THE BIBLE

The Bible is full of reminders to celebrate! Why not celebrate a loved one with a note that includes one of the following verses?

This is the day which the Lord has made; Let us rejoice and be glad in it. (Psalm 118:24 NASB)

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: "Rejoice!" (Philippians 4:4)

Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! His faithful love endures forever. (Psalm 107:1 NLT)

I will give thanks to you, Lord, with all my heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds. (Psalm 9:1)

Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! (Psalm 95:2 RSV)

Now you've got my feet on the life path, all radiant from the shining of your face. Ever since you took my hand, I've been on the right way. (Psalm 16:11 MSG)

The Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy. (Psalm 126:3)

CREATED TO CELEBRATE

It is only fitting then that we should celebrate with one another – to see the little moments and the significant accomplishments, acknowledge the hard work done, rejoice in another year lived, or just be thankful for the presence of someone in our lives.

A wonderful way to love and celebrate one another is by sending #PenToPaper notes.
